

I don't think the FCC should implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law protections. I enjoy spending time with my family without telephone solicitor interruptions. Please don't change the law.